Segment 3: The Contractor’s Role in the Schedules Program

Thank you for taking the time to view one of the four presentations in the GSA Schedules Training for Vendor Success webinar series. Below is a collection of online resources referenced throughout the webinar that will help you market your company more effectively in the federal marketplace. This list includes different resources within GSA that offer information on how to increase your visibility and conduct market research. In addition, there is a complete list of live links to social media sites, market data research tools, and downloadable print materials. We have also provided step-by-step instructions for some of these resources to help set you up for success.

Non-GSA Online Resources
For help identifying your target market, conducting market research, and finding government customers for your product or service, go to:

Federal Funding Accountability and Transparency Act www.ffata.org
A good source for market research, the Federal Funding Accountability and Transparency Act website contains information about who’s buying the things you’re selling. A single, searchable website open to the public, it contains most federal awards, including grants, subgrants, loans, awards, cooperative agreements and other forms of financial assistance as well as contracts, subcontracts, purchase orders, task orders, and delivery orders.

Federal Procurement Data System FPDS https://www.fpds.gov
GSA analyzes data as part of its own strategic planning process and provides this information to contractors who ask for it via the Federal Procurement Data System. This data can help vendors gain strategic insight into which agencies are buying from the Schedules program and which aren’t. Vendors can request and receive specific data by sending an email request to the applicable acquisition center see above and can use this data to develop their own marketing strategy and communications plans. is the single government-wide point-of-entry for federal government procurement opportunities valued at more than $25,000. Government buyers publicize their business opportunities by posting information directly to FedBizOpps, while commercial vendors use the same portal to seek federal markets for their supplies products and services, and can search, monitor, and retrieve opportunities solicited by the federal contracting community. For more information about how to use this resource more effectively, see Appendix C at the end of this document.

Federal Acquisition Jump Station http://www.thecre.com/fedlaw/legal25/fedproc.htm
The Federal Acquisition Jump Station provides websites of federal procurement information broken down by agency. It also includes announcements of upcoming and current acquisitions and solicitations as well as federal acquisition regulations.

Appendix A: GSA eLibrary

GSA eLibrary formerly Schedules e-Library is the online source for the latest contract award information for GSA Schedules; Department of Veterans Affairs VA Schedules; and Technology Contracts, including Governmentwide Acquisition Contracts GWACs, Network Services and Telecommunications Contracts, and Information Technology IT Schedule 70.

GSA eLibrary is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week to provide up-to-date information on which suppliers have contracts and what items are available. Information can be obtained by searching on various search terms, including Keywords; Contractor/Manufacturer Name; Contract Number; Schedule Name, Schedule Number, Category/Sub-Category Name, or Category Number/Special Item Number SIN; or Technology Contract Name, Contract Number, or Category Name/Number.

GSA eLibrary also provides an Alphabetical Listing of Available Contractors, allowing customers to easily locate all Schedule and Technology Contracts for a particular company. An updated Category Guide is designed to facilitate searches for specific groups of items.

Our systems division in central office is working to make GSA eLibrary much more user friendly. Soon, you will be able to go on the website and update your information as needed, without having to go through the acquisition center. Also, GSA allows you to access GSAAAdvantage® or eBuy directly from the eLibrary page.

To access GSA eLibrary and view/change your schedule listing:

1. Go to http://gsaelibrary.gsa.gov
2. Click on “Quick Schedule” located at the top right of the screen, select the Schedule you desire, and click “go.” For our demonstration we will be using Schedule 738 II
3. This will take you to the Schedule Summary page. From here, click on the category you desire. For our demonstration we will be using Category 382 3 Training and Educational Materials *Note: You can also use the drop down menu to find your desired category.
4. This link shows the Schedule Title along with the Schedule name. By clicking on the Red SIN number, it takes you directly to the schedule page where the solicitation can be downloaded. It also brings up the contractors and their links to GSAAAdvantage®. For our demonstration we will be using A LA CARTE LANGUAGES INC
5. Look at your contact information and company information and verify that it is correct. If your information is entered wrong, customers will not be able to contact you. *Note: Updates to company/contact information can take up to 24-48 hours for GSA to receive. After GSA receives the updated information, your Contracting Officer CO must review and approve the changes in FSS Online before it will be displayed in eLibrary.
6. Click on “Vendors How to change your company information,” located at the top right of the page to download the detailed instructions on how to change your company information. To summarize, the instructions on this page will prompt you to do the following:

7. To change your company address: Update the information on the Central Contractor Registration CCR and contact your CO.

8. To change your telephone number: Notify your CO of the change so that it can be updated in GSA's internal system FSS Online.

9. To change your email or web address: If your catalog is on GSAAAdvantage®, you must submit a catalog file update to correct the email/web address. If your catalog is not yet available on GSAAAdvantage®, notify your CO of the changes so he/she can update FSS Online accordingly.
Appendix B: GSA’s Vendor Support Center

The Vendor Support Center offers valuable information and assistance concerning how to effectively manage your federal supply schedule contract. The Vendor Support Center VSC is the online source for vendors to obtain information, review and report sales, view competitor sales reports, find sales partners and more. The VSC website contains a wealth of information to assist both GSA Schedule and Government Wide Acquisition Contract GWAC contractors in fulfilling the contract administration requirements of their respective contracts. Online information is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

The VSC maintains a staff ready to assist vendors in the preparation and submission of electronic catalog files to GSA Advantage®, and in the submission and reporting of sales data. Vendors may contact the VSC staff Monday - Friday, 7:30 a.m. - 5:30 p.m. EST at 877 495-4849, or via email at vendor.support@gsa.gov.

To View Competitor Sales Reports and To Find Sales Partners:

1. Go to https://vsc.gsa.gov
2. Go to “Business Opportunities” located on the far right of the blue bar at the top of the page. From the drop down menu, select “Schedules Sales Query SSQ”.
3. On the Schedule Sales Query page, click on “Create Report” located on the left.
4. Fill in the information fields Name, Company, E-Mail, Telephone # and click “Proceed”.
5. Next, choose the type of report you would like generated, and click “Generate Report”.
6. From here, you have the option to choose from “Text file for printing” or “Excel Spreadsheet” for different fiscal years. Click on the file type and the fiscal year you desire.
7. Open or Save the document.
Through the Schedules Input Program SIP, vendors provide text and catalog files about their businesses for upload to GSA Advantage®. GSA Advantage® is the core e-tool that houses information on GSA Schedule contractors and provides vital information to customer agencies. Vendors must make sure their companies are well represented, because when a customer uses eLibrary and eBuy, they are linking to vendor information stored in GSA Advantage®. At GSA we teach our customers that they need to use GSA Advantage® for their market research.

To access comprehensive training on how to upload your text and catalog files to GSA Advantage using SIP:

1. Go to https://vsc.gsa.gov
2. Put your cursor mouse arrow over “Getting on Advantage,” located on the second tab of the blue bar near the top of the website. A drop down menu will appear with the following selections: SIP/EDI differences, SIP Training and SIP Instructions.

You may also contact the Vendor Support Center if you need additional help:

GSA Logo

Through GSA’s marketing and outreach efforts, we have trained customer agencies to look for the GSA Logo. Your company should clearly and frequently display the GSA logo so that potential customers can easily identify you a schedule contractor. You may use the logo in any outreach efforts you undertake, as long as you follow the guidelines available on the Vendor Support Center. To access those guidelines:

1. Go to https://vsc.gsa.gov
2. Put your Cursor mouse arrow over “Getting on Advantage” located on the second tab on the blue bar near the top of the website. A drop down menu will appear, from here click on “GSA Logo”.
3. You should now be on a GSA website with the heading “GSA Logo Download”. This webpage has guidance on the Guidelines of using the GSA Star Mark Logo.
4. Click on the “Accept” button red box located near the top center of the webpage.
5. Here you will find all the variations and downloads of the GSA Star Mark Logo.

Questions or clarifications about the use of the GSA star mark should be directed to the Office of Marketing, Communications Division, at 703 605-5640.
More About Schedules
To learn more about the GSA Schedules program:

1. Go to https://vsc.gsa.gov
2. Put your Cursor mouse arrow over the menu item “Government Marketplace.”
   It is located on the second tab from the right on the blue bar near the top of the website. A drop down menu will appear. From there click on one of the following topic areas:
   “Schedules Overview from 30,000 ft”
   “Are Schedules for you?”
   “Benefits of Schedules”
   “How to use Schedules”

Sales Reporting
1. Go to https://vsc.gsa.gov
2. Put your Cursor mouse arrow over “Reporting Sales,” located on the third tab on the blue bar near the top of the website. A drop down menu will appear. From that menu, select “72A Online Reporting.”
3. You should now be in the GSA 72A Quarterly Reporting System. From here, you can login and Report your Quarterly Sale. There is also guidance regarding IFF Payment Info, State and Local Disaster Recovery Purchasing, IFF and Access Fee Rates, and Frequently Asked Questions.
Appendix C: FedBizOpps

FedBizOpps is the single government-wide point-of-entry for federal government procurement opportunities valued at more than $25,000. Government buyers publicize their business opportunities by posting information directly to FedBizOpps, while commercial vendors use the same portal to seek federal markets for their supplies, products, and services, and can search, monitor, and retrieve opportunities solicited by the federal contracting community.

It’s important to note that, to use FedBizOpps effectively, you need at least some knowledge of the Schedule’s North American Industry Classification System (NAICS) number and how to filter the data for the appropriate Product Service Codes. To find your NAICS code, look at your contract.

To Search for Procurement Opportunities:

1. Go to http://fbo.gov
2. Click on “Find Opportunities,” which is located in the middle of the home page in the light green section for “Vendors / Citizens.” No login is required to view opportunities.
3. On the “Find Opportunities” page, there are a number of ways to search for opportunities, including Keyword / Solicitation #, Agency, Set-aside, State, and Type. You can also use Search by Classification, NAICS code, Recovery actions, and more.
4. For example, if you enter the NAICS code 541620 in the “Keyword / Solicitation #” search box and click Enter, the search results will show you all of the current opportunities available linked to that NAICS number.
5. Click on an individual opportunity to view in-depth details.
6. To find specific contracting Points of Contact (POCs), go to the “Notice Details” page of each agency’s opportunity. If you scroll down to the bottom of the page, you will find the agency’s primary POC.
